PROFILE

Mr. Ismail is an AV® Peer Review Rated partner with the firm. He practices in the area of products liability, insurance coverage, commercial and general civil litigation. He has represented clients in bench and jury trials, in state and federal courts, as well as in mediations and other proceedings.

In his products liability practice, Mr. Ismail has represented Pfizer, Bayer, Wyeth, Dentsply, Perrigo, Intervet and Akzo Nobel in cases involving pharmaceutical drugs, medical devices and other medical, dental and veterinary products. In his insurance coverage practice, Mr. Ismail has represented Zurich, AIG, Everest and other carriers (as well as a policyholder, Dentsply) in coverage disputes. In his commercial and general civil litigation practice, Mr. Ismail has litigated business disputes on behalf of clients ranging from large corporations, including Pfizer, Republic Services and Genesis Health Ventures, to a variety of smaller companies. On referral from pro bono organizations, Mr. Ismail has also represented indigent clients in a variety of proceedings.

Mr. Ismail was born in the tropical island of Ceylon, now Sri Lanka. He grew up in the coastal city of Colombo and studied at St. Thomas's College in the central highlands. His family later emigrated, first to Zambia in central Africa, where Mr. Ismail completed his secondary education, and then to the United States.

After earning his bachelor's degree at Columbia University in New York, Mr. Ismail covered local and state news as a reporter and photographer for the Calvert County Recorder in Prince Frederick, Maryland. During his five years at the newspaper, he won numerous reporting and editorial awards from the Maryland-Delaware-District of Columbia Press Association.

Mr. Ismail attended law school at the University of Maryland, graduating cum laude and with the Order of the Coif. He also served as Executive Editor of the Maryland Law Review in 1992-93. He began his legal career at Goodell, DeVries, Leech & Dann in 1993, practicing in the areas of pharmaceutical liability and insurance coverage litigation. He left briefly to practice white-collar criminal litigation at Hogan & Hartson, LLP, but later returned to Goodell, DeVries, Leech & Dann to focus on civil litigation. He has been a partner since 2004.
